

jessica fortner
sculpted illustration

Jessica is a freelance illustrator who lives and works in Toronto, Canada. She creates her illustrations by fabricating environments and characters out of polymer clay and other materials that she finds. After staging them they are photographed and digitally retouched to produce a final illustration.

info@jessicafortner.com

www.jessicafortner.com